

Attain a stellar MBA from a five-star business school in Hong Kong

In our rapidly-changing society, leaders and professional managers must equip themselves to meet existing and emerging global challenges. Addressing these needs, the University of South Australia and the Hong Kong Management Association are working together in offering the Master of Business Administration (MBA) Program in streams of Marketing, Human Resources Management and Finance.

The University of South Australia (UniSA) is the largest university in the state of South Australia, and the fifth largest in Australia, with over 32,000 students and 2,000 staff members. As one of the fastest growing and most innovative Australian universities, UniSA boasts well over 100,000 graduates in the last twenty-five years, and is a significant contributor to the success of its international network of alumni and to the dynamism of their communities.

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) is taught by the University's Business School. With around 10,000 students and over 300 academic and professional staff members, UniSA Business School is the largest business school in South Australia, and internationally recognized for its excellence in teaching and research.

University of South Australia is ranked among the top 2% of universities and the top 1% of business schools worldwide in the 2017/18 QS Ranking, and its MBA program has been consistently rated with 5 Stars by the QS Stars for Business Schools. According to the 2017 Australian Financial Review BOSS Survey, UniSA MBA has been ranked among the top 10 MBA in Australia for 10 years. The Business School has also been accredited by EQUIS.

The MBA is well-designed for professional managers and executives that allow you to fill in the gaps, learn the language of business and provide a firm grounding in the fundamentals of various business disciplines. Courses are taught by both UniSA faculty and local practitioners with the aid of UniSA's own online learning platform. The program could be completed in 1.5 years and the degree awarded will have the same academic standing and recognition as the qualification in Australia.
